

FARMERS' WIVES TELL WHAT THEY KNOW ABOUT PE-RU-NA.

Peruna is Used In the Farmer's Home for all Sorts of Catarrhal Ailments.

Mrs. Magdalena Winkler

Now Perfectly Healthy.

Mrs. Magdalena Winkler, Route 5, Westminster, Md., writes: "I thank you very much for your advice. I can safely say that Peruna and Manalin have saved my life."

"When I wrote to you the first time, asking your advice, my condition was so poor that I did not expect to live through the winter, but now I am perfectly healthy."

"I cannot praise your medicine enough, and I recommend it to others."

Catarrh of Stomach.

Mrs. Mary Allen, Route 6, Franklin, Tenn., writes:

"I am glad to be able to tell you that I am well of catarrh of the stomach, for which I am sincerely thankful to you for your advice. If it had not been for Peruna I would never have been well."

"I had three physicians. One of them told my husband that he could not cure me."

"I had been sick about nine months when a friend asked me to try Peruna to gratify her; so I commenced taking it."

"I can eat and walk and work. Everybody says I look as well as I ever did. Oh, you don't know how thankful I do feel to you."

"I have got several other people to take Peruna. I praise it to everybody."

For Children's Colds.

Mrs. Henry Martin, La Motte, Ia., R. R. No. 1, writes:

"After suffering for some time with sore eyes I was advised by a friend to try Peruna, which I did at once."

"The first bottle relieved me, and after using four bottles I was entirely cured."

"I do recommend Peruna to all who are afflicted with catarrh. I have found it to be a great remedy also for coughs and colds of children; a dose at bedtime will relieve them from coughing all night. I always keep it on hand, and recommend it."

Catarrh for Seven Years.

Mrs. T. Frech, R. R. No. 1, Hickory Point, Tenn., writes: "I am happy to tell you that I am cured of catarrh. I have followed your good and kind advice faithfully. I bless the day when I wrote you of my condition, and I will always praise Peruna. I think it is one of the greatest medicines on earth."

"Having been afflicted with catarrh and stomach trouble for seven years, and after having tried four different doctors they only relieved me for a little while. I gave up all hope of being cured. I only weighed one hundred and thirty pounds, and was so weak I could hardly get around the room."

"I was induced to try Peruna, and to my great surprise I am now entirely well. My weight is now one hundred and eighty-eight pounds, my health never was better in my life. I shall always praise Dr. Hartman and his remedies."

Mrs. Anna Linder

The Farmer's Wife.

Who is in a better position to know than the farmer's wife herself what is required in the farmer's home? She must meet its troubles, solve its problems, ward off disease, nurse the sick, she must do all these things herself, and she learns by valuable experience what is best and what is not best.

In numberless farm homes Peruna is relied upon as the family medicine. Peruna books are consulted in health and disease. Peruna is used as a preventive as well as a corrective in disease.

The wives of the farmers of the United States constitute a solid phalanx in favor of Peruna. Against this testimony the slanders of a few critics will not prevail. One sensible mistress of a farm home who has used Peruna knows more about Peruna than all the magazine critics in the world.

Peruna in Her Home.

Mrs. Anna Linder, R. F. D. No. 5, Dassel, Meeker Co., Minn., writes: "For two years I suffered with that terrible disease, chronic catarrh."

"Fortunately I saw your advertisement in my paper and I spoke to my sister about your medicine. She wrote to you and I got your advice free of charge. I took Peruna and am well and a mother of two children.

"I owe it all to Peruna. I would not be without that great tonic for ten times its cost, for I am well and strong now, and cannot speak in too high terms of its value as a medicine."

In a letter dated June 12, 1906, Mrs. Linder writes: "I cannot express my thanks enough to you for all the good your medicine has done for me and my family."

Mrs. Hettie Green

This spring I took cold and it settled in my kidneys. At first I thought it was kidney trouble.

"I took Peruna as directed on the bottle and in a few days I was all right, so I owe my health to Dr. Hartman and his remedy."

Miserable With Catarrh.

Mrs. Hettie Green, R. R. 6, Iuka, Miss., writes: "Last November I had catarrh, and felt so miserable, I thought that I would go into consumption."

"I tried so many doctors and medicines, but nothing did me any good, only Peruna."

"After I began the use of Peruna I began to improve in every way."

"My head does not hurt so much, my stomach is all right, my bowels are regular, my appetite good, my complexion clear, my eyes are bright, and I am gaining in flesh and strength."

"I think Peruna has no equal as a catarrh remedy."

MORE ARRESTS IN CALLOWAY

The Calloway Grand Jury at Last Finds the Missing Witness.

ANOTHER LEADER IS Captured Going In The Direction of the Tennessee River.

Murray, Ky., April 22.—Murray Harris, the night rider, who confessed and implicated prominent men in the band operating in the west side of Calloway county, was captured at his home by Constable Clint Drinkard and taken to Murray to appear before the grand jury. His testimony was almost essential to the success of the prosecution against the band in the Kirksey section, and threats of vengeance had impelled his own family to send him into exile. His home has been watched and the constable arrested him. He will not be allowed to leave the custody of the law until the prosecutions are over.

The arrest last night of Kelsie Kirk on Tennessee river on three charges of night riding was one of the most gratifying since the Calloway county grand jury first reported. Kelsie, who is a daring young fellow, was one of the first indicted, but he had fled to Trigg county, and was hard to find. His arrest by Robert Lasiter, a special deputy, also shows how well organized the forces of the county are under Judge Wells, Sheriff Edwards and Major Albrecht. Lasiter is one of the men patrolling the river, and he was to report when Kelsie Kirk had crossed into Calloway. Lasiter made the arrest himself at Callowaytown just as Kelsie was preparing to cross back into Trigg county. He had been visiting home folks. He was locked up in default of bond.

Kelsie Kirk is considered one of the most active members of the east side band. It is charged that he has participated in forcing a number to take the oath of allegiance to the night riders, and seldom failed when something was doing on the pike at night. He was at one time a street car motorman in Paducah and is well known in Calloway county and those adjoining.

Elmus Williams appeared in Murray and gave bond.

The fifty-two indictments returned are against thirty-three men, all members of the East Side band. It is understood that the leaders of that aggregation are all indicted, and the grand jury is now engaged in the cases of the west side.

The manner in which people who talk too much are spotted and men wanted are located for the soldiers to go after is gaining credence for the suspicion that a considerable percent of the men in khaki are really secret service men.

ONLY IN FUN.

Two Young Men Admit That They Left Switches at Robt. Bronaugh's.

The bundles of switches to which threatening notes were attached, which were left on the porch at the residence of Robt. Bronaugh Saturday night, it has turned out were not the work of night riders. Edmund Fowler and a young man named Kennedy confessed to Mr. Bronaugh Monday that they put the switches there as a joke on Mrs. Bronaugh, who played an April fool joke on them April 1st. The authorities were making a vigorous investigation of the affair and in order to stop this the young men confessed. Fowler lives with Mr. Bronaugh.

This disposes of the only outrage that has occurred in Christian county since Feb. 26. Let us hope that all future ones will prove to be as harmless. It would be well enough, however, for everybody to realize that this is no time for such foolishness.

DEMAND RESIGNATIONS. Night Riders Go After Robertson Magistrates.

Carlisle, Ky., April 20.—Night riders waited upon Magistrates O. P. Overly and Reuben Dothan, of Robertson county, and requested them to resign at once, and they have done so. These magistrates had refused to vote for an appropriation for a new turnpike in the county. Magistrate Bradley has his intention of resigning before being asked to.

The night riders also requested Road Supervisor Bruce Massey to resign his office, which he immediately did, which will leave the county without any magisterial government until others can be commissioned by the Governor.

CITIZENS ON GUARD

In Lyon County Now That Soldiers Have Left.

Kuttawa, Ky., April 20.—Since the call of the soldiers from Eddyville to Murray to offset the expected raid on that city Saturday night by the night riders, several citizens in different parts of the county have taken up the patrol work of the soldiers, and at night have been traveling about in various directions, sufficiently armed, it is believed, to protect themselves and to suppress any raid. While everything seems quiet in the county at present, the people are more or less uneasy, as there might be an outbreak at any time, since no one has been arrested for being in any raid in this county.

D. Z. Nicholas, a Larue county grower, received a warning Tuesday that he must not raise any more tobacco. He secured bloodhounds and is attempting to track the men who left the warning.

Gen. Roger Williams will be sent to Western Kentucky to take command of the State troops there. He held a conference with Gov. Willson, at which the night rider situation was thoroughly canvassed.

Eighty-nine citizens of the Kirksey neighborhood in Calloway county have published a card in the Murray Times publicly pledging their support to Judge Wells in his fight against night riding. The Times is doing good work on the side of law and the good people of Calloway, like the good people of Christian, are determined to put down lawlessness in every form.

Forty citizens, reported as night riders, have warned two magistrates and the road supervisor of Robertson county to resign on account of a failure to make certain roads.

D. A. R.

Begins Seventeenth Continental Congress.

Washington, April 20.—The seventeenth Continental Congress of the American Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution convened here to-day in Memorial Continental Hall, with an unusually large attendance. The congress will be in session for six days.

As this is an "off year," the exciting scenes incident to the election of a head for the organization will not be gone through with. The selection of ten vice presidents-general and the discussion of proposed amendments to the constitution will, however, afford considerable interest for the delegates.

Among the vice presidents-general whose terms of office expire this year and whose places are to be filled are Mrs. Robert Emory Park, Georgia; Mrs. Sally Marshall Hardy, Kentucky; Mrs. Ira H. Evans, Texas; and Mrs. A. E. Heneberger, Virginia.

A number of social functions will be given in honor of the daughters during the week. On Thursday President Roosevelt will receive them at the White House.

UNION MINERS' LEADER KILLED

Jas. D. Wood Meets Death In a Desperate Street Duel.

HIS BROTHER WOUNDED They Fought With Three Former Policemen of Central City.

Central City, Ky., April 22.—Jas. D. Wood, for many years president of District 23, United Mine Workers of America, was shot and instantly killed last night in a fight in which his brother, John Wood, and John H. Magan, a former policeman, were also wounded.

The fight occurred on the platform of the Illinois Central railroad station and grew out of political troubles between the Woods and three former policemen who were recently let out of the city's service, largely through the influence of James D. Wood, who was a member of the board of councilmen.

Twenty Shots Fired.

Nearly twenty shots were fired. The two Woods on one side and Jas. Jenkins, former chief of police, and Walter Hardwick and Magan, both formerly members of the police force, on the other. The five men met on the platform and are said to have quarreled violently for some minutes before the shooting began. Who first drew a weapon is not known, but after the first shot, nearly every man in the party emptied his revolver.

James Wood was shot once in the neck and a second time in the heart, the bullet causing instant death. John Wood was twice wounded, one ball entering the stomach and a second lodging in his arm, but it is believed that he will recover. Magan was shot in the leg, but the wound is not serious. The other two men were not wounded.

Prominent in Union Circles.

James D. Wood was for many years the head of the union miners' organization of Kentucky and also took a prominent part in the general union labor movement throughout the State. He was a forceful, energetic leader and displayed much ability in enlarging the membership of the union and in obtaining favorable contracts from the mine owners. Several years ago he was defeated for election as the president of District 23 and since then had lived quietly at his home in this city. He was married and leaves several children.

The shooting created tremendous excitement in Central City, where all of the participant have been in the public eye for some time.

Woman's Home Companion for May.

Herman Pfeifer's beautiful prize cover gives much distinction to the May Woman's Home Companion. Another notable art feature of this magazine is a full-page reproduction of William Balfour Ker's painting, "Memories." An aged Civil War veteran is carrying his company's colors in a Decoration Day parade, his eyes almost closed in reverie. Behind him crowd the vague, shadowy forms of the gallant youths who followed the colors with him nearly half a century ago.

Dr. Edward Everett Hale gives some good advice to young married folk. In "Are We Ready for Our Children?" Christine Terhune Herick approaches the problem of the child in the family from an actually new point of view. "Europe on Five Dollars a Day" is the first of a series of articles on the best way to travel abroad. Every person who is married or hopes to marry will enjoy greatly the hot discussion on the marriage question, under the title "Is There a Panic in the Marriage Market?"
